MICHIGAN HOPES FOR VICTORIES OVER CHICAGO

Captain Ramey, According to the Michigan Daily, Sees Chances in Track Meets

Spirit Men Good—Many Promising Candidates for Points in Intercollegiate

Michigan is trying to forget about the football season in thoughts of the future.

"We must lick Chicago twice next Spring, in the dual and conference meets," Ramey, captain of the Michigan track team, said recently. "They are hard people to beat, but I think the spirit we have shown since the football defeat will go a long way toward bringing about the downfall of Stagg's Maroons. The prospects are much better than they were last Spring and Chicago will have to go some to beat us."

The members of last year's team who are back in school are Captain Ramey, half-miler; Keeler and Annis, dashes; Coe, mile; Garrels, discus and low hurdles; Dunlap, shot-put; Rowe, two mile; French, broad-jump, and Goodwin, quarter-mile. Dana, the winner of the half mile at Stagg's Interscholastic two years ago. Doane, miler of 1903, and Stewart, record holder in the hurdles, are the best recruits to the team.

Of last year's team Nicol, Stone, Fishleigh and Captain Rebstock, will not be seen in the athletic field this year. In the conference last year, Nicol took second in the high hurdles, and Stone got second place in the great two mile run.

EX-VARSITY FOOTBALL MAN'S QUICK THINKING SAVES LIFE

Walter Cavanaugh Caught in Belt and Schooling of Football Days Saves Him

Walter Cavanaugh, who played center on the Varsity football team several years ago, had a narrow escape from a horrible death yesterday at Kenosha, Wis., where he is a foreman in the Simmons Manufacturing Company. Caught in a whirling belt driven by a 2,000 horse power engine, Cavanaugh struggled for his life. Clutching the beam of the ceiling in a vice-like grip, as he was hurled upward, the athlete fought with all his strength against being drawn into the fatal embrace of the machinery. Only after his clothing had been stripped from his body by the fast flying belting, was he freed from danger. Then he dropped to the floor exhausted.

The life and death battle of the former football player was witnessed by a score of men in the department, who looked on with horror, expecting to see him instantly killed. To the great presence of mind and prowess of Cavanaugh is attributed his escape.

Physicians were called, and an investigation showed that no bones had been broken, but Cavanaugh had been terribly burned about the face and neck by the friction of the belt.

STETSON'S CHARMS MAGNETIC

Large Group of Students Will While Away Merry Hours Among Alligators 'Neath Palms

Fifteen students of the University are laying plans to spend the winter quarter at Stetson. The party will have to leave on New Year's Day as school starts on Jan. 3.

Those who report to go are: Irene Moore, Edith Moore, Mary Morton, Nola Paradise, Alice J. Frank, Eva Steansky, Carrie George, Vera Rice, Nellie Wright, Alfrida Johnson, David W. Hall, Chauncey Burr, Frederick Carr, Maurice Pincoffs, Horace Horton.

This will be the second winter for several of these students. Baseball, boating, swimming, and tennis are the principal sports of the college. The tennis courts, which are made of crushed shell, are very fast.

RULES COMMITTEE POSTPONES MEETING

Grants Howard's Request for Delay—Will Meet Next Friday

In compliance with the request of Harvard University, the Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee has postponed its meeting which was to be held today, until Friday, December 22. The meeting will be held in Philadelphia.

John C. Bell, the University of Pennsylvania member of the committee, gives it as his opinion that the plan to make an advance of ten yards in four downs necessary to retain possession of the ball would be adopted by the committee, but with modifications to weaken the defense. In addition to this, Walter Camp suggests shortening the playing halves, a rule forbidding tackling below the knees, a distance penalty for the time taken out at the request of the captain, that the ball be called dead when any part of the person of the runner, except the feet, touches the ground, more rigid definition of the use of hands and arms, and a better protection of the man catching the ball.

Coach Fielding H. Yost, of the University of Michigan, also approves the ten-yard rule, and favors the forward pass.

JUNIOR COLLEGE COUNCIL CHANGES MEMBERSHIP RULE

Only Eight Members to Hold Places, Four Being Dropped Each Quarter

The Junior College Council at its meeting yesterday decided that under the new College system the council should consist of but eight members, one member from each college, who should hold office for two consecutive quarters, and the term of office of four councillors should expire each quarter. As a special provision this quarter, the withdrawal of four members was determined by lot. Hence the colleges that will hold elections for councilor next quarter are as follows: College of Philosophy (men) College of Literature (men) College of Arts (women) College of Science (women)

SOCKER MEN MEET HARVARD

Plans For Game With Eastern Team Are Under Way—Team Gets Final Practice Before Wanderers' Game

The East and West may meet in "socker" football, even if not in the Rugby game. An offer has been received from the Harvard University "socker" team to play the Maroons in Chicago if expenses are guaranteed. The matter is being considered and it is more than probable that arrangements for the game will be completed. The game is to be played next spring, when the Harvard team will also include Illinois and other western schools in its itinerary.

Coach Purcell will give his squad the final practice this afternoon in preparation for the game with Wanderers at Parkside tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Most of the candidates will be given a try-out against the more experienced players, after which an all-star team will be picked which Coach Purcell declares will be able to play the Wanderers to a standstill. Captain Loose has announced the following line-up for tomorrow: Goals, Gregory and Peacock; full backs, Gray, Loose and Chamberlin; half backs, Hostetter, Magee, Lake and Mefford; forwards, Rubinkam, Simpson, Brokaw, Baker, McDermid, Steffen and Mannheim. Beaton of the Metropolitan will referee; Dunn and Ward will act as linesmen.

Eckersall will don a suit and show the socker men a few stunts in the scientific booting of the ball next week. Other men of the football squads have already reported for practice, among them being Mefford, Steffen, Magee, Ferguson and Hopkins. Schomer, the freshman high-jumper and basket ball player, and Harle, the long distance runner from Princeton, have also announced their intention of getting into the game.

AWARDS ENGLISH 1 CLASS PRIZES

Mr. Linn Announces As Winners Edson, Princell and Hotchkiss

Mr. Linn has put into practice a new idea in his Freshman English class this quarter. He divided the entire class into three divisions, in each of which the man who did the best work was to receive a prize. Mr. Linn announced the winners this morning as follows: L. D. Edson, first division; P. P. Princell, second division; M. T. Hotchkiss, third division.

B. of St. A. Holds Election

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew held a meeting this morning for the annual election of officers, which resulted in the re-election of Bernard Bell as director, and of Kenneth Crosby as vice-director, and the election of DeWitt Lightner as secretary-treasurer.

EMBLEMS AND BLANKETS TO CHICAGO CHAMPIONS

Seventeen Men Awarded the "C," Five Given the Blanket for Veteran Service

Faculty Speakers Uphold Football, Declaring the Strenuousness of the Game is Ideal

The closing incident of the football season of 1905 took place in Kent Theater this morning when Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft presented to the seventeen men whose efforts have won them a place on the championship team, their "C" sweaters. These men are: Captain Catlin, Captain-elect Eckersall, Gale, Meigs, Badenoch, Walker, DeTray, Boone, Bezdek, Parry, Hill, Noll, Russell, Hitchcock, Larson, Scherer, and Harper. Five men who have played their last football game for the Maroon were awarded the "C" blanket: Catlin, Bezdek, Gale, Hitchcock, and Boone.

"Billy" Matthews, chairman of the Senior College Council, presided and introduced as the speakers "the youngest rooter," Dr. Thomas W. Goodspeed and Dean E. B. Hulbert, both of whom, speaking for the board of physical culture and athletics, stated that it was not in sympathy with the reformatory agitation against football, and that while they would like to see a more open game and a limitation of the brutality in every way, it favored nothing that would make the game any less strenuous, or detract anything from its hold upon the public interest.

Dr. Goodspeed called football the greatest game of all games. He favored a more open game, which he believes will be more interesting to the spectators, and he would approve of any measurers which could lessen the brutality, but as for diminishing its essential ruggedness, he would have none of it. Football, he says, trains a man in resourcefulness, courage, activity, and on the instant, so well illustrated in the case of Cavanaugh, who with but an instant and with but one chance of escaping certain death, seized that only chance.

He also stated that he wished to correct the impression that President Harper had seen the Thanksgiving game from Hitchcock Hall, while he had been unable to view it, he had been in constant and intimate touch with Marshall Field and had watched the outcome with great interest. He praised the character of the men on the team and of Coach Stagg.

Dean Hulbert delivered a message from "Prexy," congratulating the team on its great victories, and paying a tribute to the physical and moral qualities of the men. His sentiment that the team of 1905 was the second to none in the character of its individual members was heartily cheered. Dean Hulbert divided the football agitators into three classes: those who would

That the University has something to be proud of besides her various athletic championships, is proven by the Evangelistic Band. This Band has accomplished much in view of the small support the student body has afforded it.

The following description of the work of the Evangelistic Band of the University appears in an article by Carlos M. Dinsmore, in the current number of the Belden Avenue Baptist Record:

"The Evangelistic Band was recently organized with Mr. W. J. Howell as leader and Mr. W. L. Runyan as business manager. Mr. Howell is a graduate of Lake Forest College, of Rochester Seminary and was pastor at Cortland, N. Y., for six years. Mr. Runyan is a graduate of Wabash College, is third year man in the divinity school and is a son of state evangelist Runyan of Wisconsin.

"This will be the third year of the work of the Band and the prospects for the coming quarter are very much brighter than at any previous year. Ten men have volunteered to work on the band as regular men and ten other men have volunteered to substitute at any time.

"The band has the hearty support of both faculty and students of the divinity school.

"Their plan is to go to a church, that has prepared for their coming, Friday afternoon and remain over Sunday. The men do not receive any pay for this work. The only expense to the church is transportation charges, entertainment during visit and advertise the meetings. God has signally blest their work in the past years and we expect larger things this year. These men go out to preach, to sing and to do personal work, depending upon the Holy Spirit to lead them and to use them to win souls."

Wisconsin Not to Drop Minnesota

The rumor that Wisconsin intends dropping Minnesota from its football schedule next year is denied by Manager Frank Reed, football manager of the Gophers, who has just returned from a conference in Madison with George F. Downer the Badger manager. It is stated that only the date is to be decided, and that the first Saturday in November has practically been agreed upon.

You are doing me a favor when you trade with me. In some stores they make you feel that they are doing YOU a favor to wait on you, at same time they are DOING you.

In other stores they in a clever way try to FORCE YOU TO BUY. I will not allow those BOWERY METHODS in my store.

Yes, I buy stock lots! Just bought a lot of 2,000 overcoats so cheap that I can sell you an overcoat at 10.00 as good as you can buy at 20.00 to 25.00 on State street. I want you to LOOK FOR MAKERS' LABEL so you may know they ARE WELL MADE.

Mothers—bring your boys—young men 16 years old up, a lot of such coats in this lot of overcoats at 10.00.

Tell that fat husband of yours he can buy an overcoat good enough for any man up to size 50 inches for 10.00 at "Ten Dollar Tom's."

Tell your young folks no sense in a man paying such fancy prices for his shirts. I am selling "ready-to-wear" fine, stylish Fancy Shirts at 1.15, and I give four cuffs to each shirt. Tell him for me, yes, and for his own good, that I make to order 3 Murray Shirts for 5.00, 6.00 or 7.50, Day, Full Dress or Fancy, and give four cuffs to each Fancy.

I will keep my store open Wednesday and Saturday nights until 10 o'clock, other nights 8 o'clock, until Jan. 1st, to give those in outlying districts a chance at this high-grade Clothing I am selling at 10.00. ARTS MEN SMOKE UP IN REYNOLDS CLUB
Faculty Men Tell Sporting Yarns-Basket Ball Team Organized

The men of the College of Arts held their first social event of the season in the shape of a smoker last night in the Reynolds Club. A good turnout of men was there and several members of the faculty. The program consisted of music furnished by Charles Ireland at the piano, and the Only Original Arts College Bazaar Band consisting of those eminent wind artists, Harper, Pinkerton, Bell, and McBride. After this the professors were called upon for talks, with dire penalties threatened in case they dared to be instructive. Mr. Bonner of the Greek department told of a time he rowed five miles for milk (Mr. Lange of the latin department doubted if it were milk.) Dean Miller told how he and Paul Harper shot and didn't shoot things last summer in the Wisconsin woods. Mr. Young, hitherto known only as a dealer in sines and tangents, told a yarn of a man he knew who got drunk every night. Dean Capps also laid aside his academic severity. All of the faculty proved to be mighty good companions.

During the evening an Arts College basket ball team was organized. Challenges will be issued at once to all the other colleges. Pinkerton was elected captain.

annihilate it, those who held, that from the nature of the game, it could be changed, and those who would transform it into a "white-gloved, calling-card affair." He sympathized with none of these, and while believing that the game could be reformed, stated that it was the opinion of the board of physical culture that the game should not be abolished.

Dr. Raycroft regreted that the "Old Man" could not be present. Each man, as he stepped forth to receive his emblem; sweater, cap and jersey, was greeted with a round of cheers.

12:15 Gym Class Wins Relay Race

An inter-class relay race between the members of the 11:15 and 12:15 classes was run in the gymnasium at 1 o'clock, and was won by the 12:15 class. Both classes are in charge of Mr. Sartain, and there is much rivalry between them. H. E. Foreman, '09, is captain of the 11:15 squad, and W. F. James, Jr. led the latter class.

Eleven men were run on each side, and the average time of each team was about 17 seconds to the lap. Both classes had been preparing for the race for some weeks, and the showing was unusually good for gymnasium class work. Another race between the winner and Mr. Childs' 5:15 class, which is much larger, will be run in the near future.

"Odd" $25, $30, $35 Suits at $20
Two Days Only

Where there are "one or two of a kind" left over in stock, it is "good merchandising" to sell them even at a loss. You win and we lose today and Saturday. There are about 125 "lonesome suits." None worth less than $25 and from that up to $35. Noshing wrong with them—only they've been such good sellers that there's only an "odd size" left.

Take Your Pick at $20.

You can't go wrong on any "Mossler Suit" at this price. Get in early and ask for one of the "odd ones." Every size, even stout and regular.

Take elevator to second floor, only show-room on first.
